You are responsible for the security of the key. If the key is lost or misplaced, then another key deposit must be paid before a replacement key is issued. Council will open the locker as soon as possible, however, the locker cannot be used until the locks is replaced.

The rental agreement can be extended for a further three-month period if payment is made for the next three months and Council is satisfied that the conditions of the rental have been complied with over the period.

If the rental agreement is not renewed, everything must be removed from the locker by the last day of the rental period and the key returned to Council in person within 10 working days. If this does not happen, Council will clear the locker. Belongings not collected within three months will be disposed of.
