

Dear Resident or Occupant

Dear Resident,

RE: COMMUNITY NOTIFICATION - ROAD CLOSURES DURING JACARANDA SEASON - McDOUGALL STREET, KIRRIBILLI

For 6 consecutive weekends from 7am and 7pm on Saturdays and Sundays (estimated between October 2023 and January 2024), Council is implementing a temporary road closure on:

- a. McDougal Street, between Broughton Street and Willoughby Street; and
- b. Hipwood Street, between McDougal Street and Bradley Avenue.

The closure applies ONLY to weekends (Saturday and Sunday) from 7am to 7pm (daylight hours). Vehicular access will be maintained for residents during the closure period.

The temporary road closure is being implemented to create a safer environment while the Jacaranda trees are blooming and is dependent on when the trees are in full bloom and crowd numbers have increased.

The weekend closure will be manned by traffic controllers and vehicle access can only be obtained by residents (who live in the road closure area and visitors who have visitor parking permits). Access will be gained via showing a licence or photo identification with your address to the traffic controllers.

Access to emergency vehicles will be provided at all times. Taxis, Uber and hire cars will not have access during the closure times unless they are being used by local residents who live in the street.

If you are a resident and access the road closure area via a vehicle, please take extra care while driving, give way to pedestrians and slow down to 10km/h, as it is likely there will be pedestrians on the road.

If you have questions regarding these temporary traffic arrangements during Jacaranda season, please email: council@northsydney.nsw.gov.au or call 9936 8100.

Yours sincerely

Iman Mohammadi

Traffic & Transport Engineer
