2. Confirmation of the Minutes Wednesday 19 May 2021.
Proposed KB, seconded RC, vote: 8 for, 0 against.
3. Brought forward: matters of concern.
No matters were brought forward.
4. Quick update on Council matters.
CPC Meeting to be held 22 June 2021; documents on exhibition 22/6/21 to 28/6/21; Council responses to Precinct resolutions; Precinct System Review (recommendations to be put to Council 28/6/21 with Councillor briefing prior); out of hours work on the Highway from 16/6/21; Ramp Up protest against visual obtrusiveness and overshadowing of open space by current proposals for cycle access to Bridge; carpark revenue – a comparison of Crows Nest carparks; e-waste drop-off; renewal of Kelly's Place lease.
Note: In our February Minutes we requested that Traffic investigate whether signage at the Chandos St/Brook St intersection might be improves to slow vehicles approaching the intersection and to alert them to pedestrians attempting to cross. In Council's reply, Council's Manager Traffic & Transport Operations advised that Council would arrange for pedestrian warning signage to be installed on the approach to the corner, subject to approval by the Traffic Committee on 11 June 2021. Has this matter been put to the Traffic Committee?
